LIBRARY PROFILE

A library is a storehouse of knowledge. A library satisfies our external desire for knowledge of the unknown and unseen. A library plays an important role in the realm of knowledge. A library is part and parcel of an educational institution. Moreover, the importance of library grates in spreading education. It was established in 1984, since the library has made consistent progress in terms of books, journals, other resources and services. Traditional library approach is now replaced with user oriented approach with the use of technical advancement for delivering service. We are providing service at our best level. With optimized use of these technologies like internet facility, e-books, e-journals, N-List database etc. Library has collection of the reference books, encyclopedias, dictionaries and other reading books. We also are providing service through N-List and NDL database e-resource. More than 20749 books are available in library. We subscribe 31 journals and magazines for various subjects and daily 09 newspapers in regional language Marathi as well as in English and Hindi.
